CLOTHING BANK LOOKING BETTER THAN EVER!

The Clothing Bank has been restructured, updated, and has a brand new look! Sylvia Green, Clothing Bank Coordinator, Dawn Graf, her assistant, and a wonderful team of volunteers have been busy sorting, cleaning, painting, and removing a wall to give the Clothing Bank new life. The team has had a lot of fun and laughter throughout the process, too. Donations are always welcomed. There is an urgent need for white plastic grocery bags. We do not accept VHS and cassette tapes, large furniture, mattresses, infant furniture, car seats, televisions, computers, or wire hangers. Volunteers are always needed. Please stop by or complete a volunteer application online if interested.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR SUPPORTERS:

Reflections From A Clothing Bank Volunteer by Kathy Maus

Somewhere in the late 1990's, as I felt in my heart the desire to help those in need, I pursued volunteering at the Hanover Area Council of Church's clothing bank. I was put in the position to take over the "specials room," also called "the closet", which consisted of jeans, socks, and underwear for school age children and whatever other donations may come in that they felt I could distribute. At that time we began to purchase new jeans and seek to find whatever stores would offer us a discount! Over these last 25 years that room has developed into quite a distribution area! Not only do we carry things that are donated, we have a budget to purchase things which we are in need of.

Many churches do "Undie Sundays" to donate children's underwear and socks. They also do glove trees to donate hats, scarves, and gloves. We distribute blankets, sheets, towels, baby items including diapers and wipes, toiletries, new jeans for school-aged children, new underwear and new socks for all ages, school supplies and whatever else someone may donate that others can use. The specials room is only open on Tuesday mornings and those that would like supplies from there must qualify as low income. We do keep track of what each client receives as these items are dispersed on a limited basis. You may, on occasion, see me in a store clearing off a clearance rack of jeans, underwear and socks! I'm always looking for the best bargain!

I love that we can help people get through difficult seasons of their lives and it really blesses me when I run into someone after having not seen them for several months and find out that they are doing well...working a job and living life. That's what this ministry is all about- blessing and serving others, meeting needs and striving to brighten people's day!

PA STATE REPRESENTATIVE KATE A. KLUNK recently visited and toured the Hanover Area Council of Churches with HACC Executive Director Mirna Wildasin. Rep. Klunk was interested in finding out what services we provide and who we serve. She would like to become more supportive to our community needs and to help provide those needs. One of her main goals is to reach out the Hispanic population. Rep. Klunk's office is located nearby at 118 Carlisle Street, Hanover. She serves the 169th Legislative District in the PA House of Representatives, serving portions of York County. Thank you, Rep. Klunk, for visiting HACC and for your commitment and assistance to our citizens in need.

Caleb's Heart for the Homeless went over the board!

We are pleased to announce that the final total collected by Caleb Harner's Heart for the Homeless project amounted to $8301! He exceeded his goal of $5000, and the money will be used to purchase industrial mattresses for the Changing Lives Homeless Shelter. Caleb will be present when the new mattresses arrive and he will be part of the transformation. Congratulations Caleb, and a big thank you to you and all who donated so generously with monetary support, pillows, sheets & blankets. Stay tuned for photos!

Youth Empowerment at the Council of Churches

Ignite Youth Group—Emerge Church

“Volunteers are the heart of HACC”

We want to thank the help of our youth volunteers! Along with their community projects, they brought a lot of joy and added that spark we are always looking for. They did a great job, prepping lunches, busting down cardboard, and helped to hand out and serve the homeless population. They also brought in bags for the clients which had water, candy and snacks in them. We love to see young volunteers helping those ones in need.

Youth empowerment is important, kids and teens need to be encouraged to believe in themselves, and a great way to express that is by helping others. We encourage your youth at church to become more active in our activities.
